

---

---

Research Summary

Attention after the adolescence of the most important standards that are measured by the attending nations and peoples, especially in the states After developing, with an interest in the development of civilization by imposing challenge of scientific and technological. Facing these countries should not leave teenagers facing the future mainstay of development preparations lean and weak capabilities to enable them to progress in their communities and after the adoption of Adolescents to other assistance necessary condition for growth and due to be the teenager and the relative inability of the individual going through periods of growth depends on my multi – age and maturity and experience.

And psychological aptitudes and mental abilities .. the research aims to determine the impact of the current program Guiding the development of functional independence in arrears students in middle school curriculum through verification of the following hypotheses.

- 1- there are no statistically significant differences at the level of significance (5%) arranged between the degrees of the group before.
- 2- No statistically significant differences at the level of significance (5%) arranged between the degrees of the group.

Experimental group in the post – test and then the experimental method to verify the research hypotheses where the sample consisted of the Baath (20) of the student who earned less on the Richter scale Functional independence has been selected from high expectations for girls at the center of Baquba, and used Indicativ programme prepared with the experimental group used the program while not being indicative Group indicative of the program.

---

---

The researcher to build the functional independence of students of the arrears through the presentation to the group Gather on the use of this phase and the researcher to extract characteristics Alsekoumtria to measure them ( honesty , and consistency ) .

Astrajiat researcher used the style of modeling has reached the number of sessions ( 12 ) meeting guidelines was referred to the group of experts and specialists in this field has showed the validity of the program .

To address the research data has been adopted by several statistical methods , including :- (pearson's correlation coefficient Mann and Whitney – chi – square – a test to cookson) .

The search results were as follows

- 1- the differences are statistically significant at the 5% level in the group and for program torgabah Guidance .
- 2- the differences are statistically significant at the 5% level of significance between the two groups in the pilot post – test and for the experimental group .